1978 JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

The Junior-Senior Prom was held in April at the beautiful Chateau De Ville. Guests were treated to a fine meal of prime rib and enjoyed the music of "Spur."

The queen of the prom, Wanda Lopes, was escorted by Paul Frazier. In the queen's court were Debbie Catabia, escorted by Steve Chandless; Joanne Flanagan, escorted by Jimmy Mulrey; and Liz Madden, escorted by Clancy Kaye.

The night had its mysterious moment when a girl, dressed in gold, made an appearance on the floor during the queen's dance. Nobody knew who she was but, it is hoped she had a good time.

The Junior Class Halloween Dance

Ron Robin migrated into the M.H.S. Cafeteria on October 21st to M.C. the Junior Class Halloween Masquerade Dance. He immediately won over the multitude with his snappy patter and disco platters. All the disco kings and queens "Freaked Out" to the music while they eagerly awaited Ron's decisions on the 'Evening's Best' costumes.

When the big moment arrived, Rick Rawling, dressed as Jaws, literally gobbled down his third place prize. Seconds later, Ron Robin's "toga buddies" Don Aldridge and Wayne Kempton animalistically snapped up their second place awards. Then the Evening's Best trio of munchkins, Carolyn Batts, Heidi Coppenrath, and Lynne Habel wizzed away the top prize. Those who did not win prizes lost no time planning their costumes for next year-or so it seemed- they were overheard singing "I want to be a macho man."

1978-79 HOMECOMING

November 4th, the 1978-79 half-time Homecoming procession! With the help of the Kiwanis and the Key Club the event was a great success. Last years former Queen Eileen Prochazka gave up her crown to beautiful Joanne Flanagan. The royal runners up were Lisa Giovanucci and Wanda Lopes.

FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON

On December 7-9, the Drama Club presented as its fall production David Rogers Flowers for Algernon. The show, presented at Furnace Brook Auditorium, was extremely well received, unanimously praised by those in attendance. Particularly appreciated was the performance of Phil Brennan, who was rewarded with a standing ovation following each performance.

Flowers for Algernon was directed by Mr. Robert Montminy, whose credits include two other Drama Club productions, You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown and the award-winning My Client Curley.

POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL

The 1978 Powderpuff Football game ended in a draw between the Senior and Junior girls.

The game was finally called when the Junior squad could not last another play with the massive defensive attack by the Seniors. The injuries began to stack up for both teams and the fans as well, as the girls decided to call it quits.

The game as a whole was very competitive and well fought. Neither team dominated the action, mainly because both teams appeared to be well coached and organized.

The half time show included a masterful pyramid by the Senior cheerleaders and a number of other colorful acts, involving their so-called Junior competition.

This game, unfortunately, was not sanctioned by the school. This is due to the tendency of the game to get too violent and out of hand. This did not keep the fans away, considering the crowd was active, involved, and prepared with cameras and flash-bulbs.

1979 "SENIOR NIGHT OUT"

The Seniors of "79" saw the rebirth of an old tradition which failed due to apathy in the last two years. On November 18, 1978 over one hundred couples rolled in at the Ridders Country Club anticipating five hours of dining and dancing. Senior Night Out gave assurance to future classes that a Senior Prom can be possible and successful as this one was.
